JAN & PHIL ENLOE

PHIL and JAN ENLOE were both raised in southern Illinois and come from families who dedicated them to the ministry. Music was always a big part of their lives and they were tutored to use music as a tool of ministry communication.

Jan attended Central Bible College in Missouri and was a member of The CHORALAIRS as well as a nationally acclaimed, award winning trio, The JOYAIRS.

A musical scholarship started Phil in a career of singing. He studied at Southern Illinois University and Akron University in Ohio.

The first seven years of Phil's musical career was spent as a member of several top named gospel groups;

THE Jr. BLACKWOOD BROTHERS, a brief time with THE IMPERIALS and twenty three with THE COURIERS.

In 1970 Phil began concerts as a soloist and earned a well recognized name throughout the church world. To his credit are 14 Albums, 55 Published Songs, a best selling book entitled, "Don't Quit, Now!". He is listed in the National Register's "Who's Who In Executives and Professionals" and International Biographical Centre's, "2000 Outstanding Musicians Of The 20th Century". Phil is a gifted communicator and as a speaker, he is humorous, personable, understandable and anointed.

Today Jan and Phil minister together in a unique combination of exciting Music, Audience Participation and Power Word. They have ministered in all 50 of the United States and 40 Nations around the world. Their television ministry includes CBN's "700 Club", TBN's, "Praise The Lord" and Canada's "100 Huntley Street".

They sing many styles of songs, enjoyed by all ages and musical backgrounds. And, no Phil & Jan ministry concert is concluded until everyone is invited to know Jesus.
